Special Issue on n ‘Findings on history of Italian mechanical Engineering’ from IFIT 2020, the Third International Conference of IFToMM ITALY
(<https://www.iftommitaly.it/ifit2020/>)

The aim of the IFIT 2020 Conference is to bring together researchers, industry professionals and students not only of the Italian community from the broad ranges of disciplines referring to Mechanism Science, in an intimate, collegial and stimulating environment. The IFIT 2020, third International Conference of the IFToMM ITALY association will be held at the School of Polytechnic and Basic Sciences of the University of Naples “Federico II”, in Naples, Italy. (<https://www.iftommitaly.it/ifit2020/>)

Among the topics of interest that are related to the scientific-technical aspects of theory, design, practice and application of the Mechanism and Machine Science, there is a specific interest on historical backgrounds mainly focused on the Italian History of Mechanical Engineering.

The special issue is focused on the Italian History of Mechanical Engineering in all its aspects (figures, achievements, theories, methods, schools, etc.).

It is organized by invitation of papers that are selected among those that are accepted for IFIT 2020, third International Conference of the IFToMM ITALY. Those papers will undergo to peer review process with the AHS journal procedures. A reduced publication fee is asked for publication in the journal. The papers will be prepared in the journal format as in For Authors and will be submitted to the guest editors, who are in charge of the collection of the papers before the review process.
